Celebrated Fiftieth Anniversary

MRS. J. C. CULBERTSON

J. C. CULBERTSON

The outstanding event of the Hamlin community the past week end, was the celebration of the Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Culbertson, at their beautiful farm home a few miles east of Hamlin.

Fifty years ago, October 29, 1889, J. C. Culbertson, and Miss Annie Akin were united in marriage. This took place near Waxahachie, in Ellis County, and it was the union of two states, in this Mr. Culbertson came from Missouri and the young lady from Tennessee. And like so many citizens of Texas who are up in the "fifties," in Texas today, they trace their birthplace back to some of the older states.

Mr. Culbertson was born in Sinclair, Mo., March 3, 1861, and came to Texas with his parents about the age of five years. Last Sunday, many Hamlin people heard some of Mr. Culbertson's relatives or old boyhood friends calling him "Collet" and that carried "Ye writer's" imagination back in the early days even before that day of Oct. 29, 1889. Young Culbertson got along very fine with Texas girls but the one from Tennessee won the race, and she has proven a real companion these 50 years. Mr. Culbertson says the basis of their long married happiness is the fact that he and his wife generally agreed on most all important essentials. That is a liberal way to look at life. It is a good way of saying that Mrs. Culbertson is a successful diplomat when it comes to managing a Missouriian.

Mrs. Culbertson was only ten years of age when her parents moved from their home in Murray County, Tenn., to Texas.

This couple have four children and four grand children, and all of them were present for the celebration of the Anniversary, Sunday. Mayor Joe L. Culbertson, and wife and two children, Joan and Dora Joyce of Hamlin; Attorney Marvin Culbertson and wife and two children, Marvin Jr., and Jacquelyn, of Vernon, Texas; Mrs. Paul Fraser and husband of San Benito, Texas; and Miss Vera Culbertson of Wichita Falls, assisted their parents in entertaining their relatives and the large numbers of congratulating friends on the eventful occasion.

Fifty years ago, the Jones County area was an undeveloped country, and it was not till 1915 that Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson could break away from their Ellis County friends and move to a new community. It was then that they purchased 3,000 acres of the finest land in Jones County and came to make their home with the Hamlin community people.

One of the dearest sentiments in a Christian couple is their church affiliations, and Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson were staunch Presbyterians and Hamlin had no church organization of that kind. So they compromised and became members of the Hamlin Methodist church, in which they soon found themselves equally as devoted and happy.

Mr. Culbertson has always been known as a worker, and a successful farmer, and his energy and enterprise have been outstanding in this county, as well as in Ellis.

Five years or so ago, Mr. Culbertson lost his eye sight and was blind for some time till the early part of this year when by an operation, one of his eyes was partially restored. He can now distinguish his friends and get about some, with a little help. Perhaps the fact that Mr. Culbertson could see his relatives and old friends, Sunday was what made him the happiest man of the party. And the party consisted of some who were his boyhood associates of whom were R. M. Delk and Shack Keys of Waxahachie, W. K. Jennings of Abilene, F. P. Warren of Wichita Falls, who was best man at the Culbertson wedding, Mr. Culbertson's two sisters, Mrs. Delk of Waxahachie, and Mrs. C. J. O'Connor of Dallas and his brother, W. A. Culbertson and wife of Sterrett, Texas, were among the people who attended the wedding fifty years ago and were present for the anniversary. Besides the large number of Hamlin friends of twenty-four years standing, there were out-of-town visitors, among whom were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Brand and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Berry of Sweetwater. Old friends and relatives from other towns namely, Waxahachie, Dallas, Sterrett, Breckenridge, Stamford, Haskell, Abilene, Vernon, Rotan, Chillicothe and Welling, were present.

On another page of the Herald, a full account of the reception in the afternoon will be found.

EXPRESSION OF GRATITUDE

To our friends and neighbors of Hamlin we express our deepest thanks and appreciation for their many deeds of kindness and tokens of sympathy to us when death came to our loved one. Your remembrances and many means of expressing your love and sympathy served to draw our hearts nearer to our friends in the time of our extreme sadness.

BABY DROWNED TUESDAY IN TUXEDO COMMUNITY

The home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Pritchard just east of Tuxedo, was the scene of a tragic death, at 3:30 P. M. Tuesday when their little 9 months old baby was drowned.

Information is that the family had done the week's washing and had filled a five gallon bucket full of water.

The little baby, Sharon, was found drowned in the bucket and all efforts to restore life failed. She is survived by the parents and four children of the family.

Burial was in the Fairview cemetery Wednesday afternoon, by the Kinney Funeral Home of Stamford.

MR. AND MRS. GREENWAY MOVED TO BORGER, TEXAS

Jones County lost a good pioneer farmer last week when Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Greenway moved from their farm home west of Neinda to Borger, Texas.

Mr. and Mrs. Greenway had lived on that farm for 19 years and during that time had built up a large friendship in Jones and Fisher Counties.

In Borger, Mr. Greenway will assist his son, W. T., in a welding shop. They will purchase a Borger residence.

ODD BITS OF JONES COUNTY NEWS

(By G. D. T.)

A mattress making demonstration was held Friday in the Boyd Chapel community by Miss Gladys Martin, HD Agent. On November 7th, a similar demonstration will be held at the home of Mrs. Ross Bartlett, in the Union community, and later one is planned for the Willow Creek community.

Mrs. J. S. Carman of the Anderson Chapel community won a white ribbon at the Dallas fair with a jar of canned plums and Mrs. Buster Bingham of the Boyd Chapel community won a blue ribbon with canned snapped peas.

4-H Club girls of the county had a poultry demonstration at the Sweetwater Fair the past week and the Home Demonstration council had an exhibit of home made games.

A boys 4-H club was organized at Truby by County Agent Floyd Lynch and the following officers were elected: James Garrett, president; Hyram James Caffey, vice-president; Caffey Welch, secretary; Floyd Davis, reporter; Rexford Jones and James Garrett as song leaders. Local leaders elected were M. W. Welch and R. Q. Garrett.

A new publication for the county has been started in the Truby school. Title is the "Truby Spudder" with LaFawn Hall as editor, Joe Tom Mankin as reporter and Billy Hawthorne as secretary.

Although playing on a substitute night, Thursday instead of Friday, the crowd of paying fans at the Hamlin-Aspermont football game was ranked second for the season. It was an ideal evening and one of the most exciting and entertaining games Hamlin has had this season.

Aspermont Hornets had trounced Hamlin's Pipers a time or two in the previous years, and hence the game had plenty of fight and interest to see if Hamlin Pipers were going to keep on letting Aspermont get away with so much count.

Right in the beginning of the game Jim Baugh for the Hornets got in some good work and before Hamlin could realize the game had started, the Hornets chalked up 7 points, over the goal and added that extra point. It began to look like Aspermont would make it 47 instead of 27 to 0, as they did once upon a time.

Hamlin got started too, later in the first half and the game went fast and with Johnson and Ivy getting in some long kicks and passes, netting Hamlin enough counters to tie their visitors as the end of the first half came.

The Herald would put in a little extra here to compliment the Piperettes and their pepping during this and the other games. Pepping up things on the side lines may not add to the count of battle, but it all certainly lends color and noise to the program. And Hamlin's Band is perhaps the best young band in Texas, and there is no question but that they whoop 'em up in good fashion along with that Pep Squad in their handsome costumes of white and green. Last Thursday night the Piperettes had become accustomed to "their white" boots and put on one of their best marches.

Aspermont's school band and Pep Squad made a creditable showing in their Scottish skirts and red shirts. Both the Hornets and their "Hornettes" proved charming opponents.

Starting the last half, Aspermont kicked off to Hamlin and Ivy caught the ball on the 35 yard line and quickly made a first down and the fight went on fast and furious to cross the goal line the second time and get that extra point to make it 14 to Aspermont 7.

The best part of Aspermont's playing took place in the next kickoff. The Hornets returned Hamlin's kick and made first downs one, two, three, four, and right over the goal line for their last count of six. The extra point was not gained. In this period Rowan and Baugh got the spotlight for the Hornets.

The Pipers did their best line plunging following the next kick from the Hornets, and Hamlin drove the leather in fast fashion over the goal line for six more and then passed for the extra point. 21 to 13 took the cowboy punch out of Aspermont and it was only by long passes that they gained anything after that.

It proved Hamlin's most enjoyable game and the fans will look forward to return the Hornets' visit in 1940.

HAMLIN TAKES ON HASKELL.

Tonight, Friday, November 3rd, the Haskell Indians will give their "Whoop" on the Piper Field in a conference game. Haskell fellows downed Anson last week, and had scouts over to see how Hamlin treated Aspermont. They should give plenty of entertainment for Hamlin folks tonight.

This game closes Hamlin "Home Contests," and the rest of the season will be in Munday, Anson and Albany.

JOHN GREEN MOVES INTO

OWN BUILDING NOV. 7.

For a number of years the John F. Green Motor Co. has been using the Chandler building as his sales rooms and garage.

A few days ago he purchased the James building on the corner of 9th and Central Avenue. This building has been reconconditioned and prepared for motor car use. If the move has not taken place yet, Mr. Green will likely be in his new home by the end of the week.

Delma Shelburne, who underwent an appendix operation last week in Hendrick Memorial Hospital in Abilene, was able to be returned to his home on Lake Drive Monday, and is recovering nicely.

Mrs. W. T. Cherry and sons, Donald, Bill and Jimmy of Slaton, came down Saturday to spend the afternoon and night and Sunday with old friends and neighbors. Really the boys came for the Carnival at the High school. Maybe next time the wife and children will stay at Slaton and look after the Santa Fe and let Bill come down and hobnob with his Hamlin friends.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Fannin and grandson, Wendel Fannin, of Odell, came Tuesday to visit P. F. Fannin and family and Jess Miller and family. Mr. Fannin combined business with pleasure, paying taxes on Hamlin property while here.

Relief At Last For Your Cough

Creomulsion relieves promptly because it goes right to the seat of the trouble to loosen germ laden phlegm, increase secretion and aid nature to soothe and heal raw, tender, inflamed bronchial mucous membranes. No matter how many medicines you have tried, tell your druggist to sell you a bottle of Creomulsion with the understanding that you are to like the way it quickly allays the cough or you are to have your money back.

Headache, Bad Breath
Tell of More to Come

Just as Paul Revere's famous ride warned of the Redcoats' coming, so Nature's messengers — headaches, biliousness, bad breath—often warn of faulty elimination.

Neglecting these signs may cause a host of constipation's discomforts: sour stomach, belching; no appetite or energy; mental dullness. It's so easy to wake up your lazy insides. Just take spicy, all vegetable BLACK-DRAUGHT. Its unusual help comes from its principal ingredient—an intestinal tonic-laxative which imparts tone to lazy bowel muscles.

Millions of packages used testify to BLACK-DRAUGHT'S merit. Try it.

A lot of people from South Side and Flat Top enjoyed the Hamlin-Aspermont football game Thursday night. We people are certainly for the Pied Pipers and hope the next game is as victorious as the last.

I GIVE YOU TEXAS

(By BOYCE HOUSE)

An elderly man remarked to me recently in Breckenridge, "When I came to this state 70 years ago, I couldn't speak a word of English." In response to my question as to where he was born, the man said, "Oh, in Texas."

Memory of Mexico: As you drive from Mexico City en route to Cholula, "the city with 365 churches," the road climbs sharply through the mountains and one remembers the line of Robert W. Service about the Canadian Rockies:

"Pines and pines and shadow of pines as far as the eye can see."

Cholula, on the plain on the other side of the mountains, can best be seen from a wind-swept height just outside a small white-and-gold church which the Spaniards built atop an Aztec pyramid. Cholula once was a city. (The conqueror one night.) Now it is a village and many of the beautiful churches — of Moorish, Spanish and Persian architecture—are out in the open country and the doors are never opened. It is a city of legends, traditions, memories and ghosts.

This-and-that: From Harry Hines, genial State Highway Commissioner, a gold highway courtesy card has just been received.

A new national magazine has made its appearance. "Drilling" is published in Dallas and the editor is Ted W. Mayborn, formerly of Temple. The publication appeals especially to drilling contractors, drillers and tool-dressers.

What could be more enjoyable than a chicken barbecue at the home of a friend? The question was prompted by such an occasion in Cisco where N. D. Gallagher, oil operator, has a pit in the backyard. This chronicler ate an entire barbecued chicken and then a half—which probably is a world's record.

Another Texan has emerged into national prominence. "Time" last week published a picture of Jerry Sadler and a two-column article which characterized the State Railroad Commissioner as a "snuff dippin', vote-gettin' man," and quoted from a speech in which he said: "Smoke is the ghost of tobacco; chewing is the body but snuff is the soul of nicotine—the mark of men with hair on their chests and women who raise breast-fed babies that make the nation's statesmen and soldiers."

A favorite story: A backwoodsman who had a nagging wife was at the nearby settlement when a small boy ran up and gasped, "A wildcat just went in the house where your wife is." When the man just stood there, the boy asked, "Ain't you gonna do anything about it?" The husband drawled, "Naw; that wildcat went in there of his own free will and accord, and he'll just have to look out for himself."

Margaret Sparks of Stamford spent the week end with Mrs. E. R. Burnes.

Protect Your Home with

Electric Light

A 25-watt bulb burns 8 hours

than a Penny Box of Matches*

WHY TAKE CHANCES with matches when Electric Service is cheaper and safer? Remember that it is dangerous to strike matches to light dark places such as closets, stairways, or basements where it might cause explosions by igniting trapped gases. A small bulb gives better light—costs less.

Remember that "The Electric Way Is the Safest Way to Live." It also is the most economical way and the most comfortable way. You can safely depend on Electric Service for Light, Cookery, Refrigeration and the many odd jobs around the home. The average daily cost is LESS than the tax on two packages of Cigarettes!

The full horror of Fire resulting from matches frequently is related in the daily press. In the interest of safety, use Electric Service to dispense with unnecessary fire hazards.

MR. and MRS. J. C. CULBERTSON CELEBRATED GOLDEN WED- DING ANNIVERSARY SUNDAY

Celebrating their Golden Wedding Anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Culbertson entertained with a reception Sunday afternoon from 3:00 until 6:00 o'clock at their farm home three miles east of Hamlin.

Clusters of large yellow chrysanthemums adorned the entertaining rooms where a color theme of white and gold was given emphasis. The tea table overlaid with a Venetian lace cloth and appointed in silver was centered with an arrangement of yellow chrysanthemums, lighted by yellow tapers in silver candelabra. Bouquets of chrysanthemums placed at vantage points completed the dining room decorations.

Mayor Joe Culbertson greeted guests at the door and presented his mother and father. Mrs. Culbertson was wearing an afternoon dress of plum sheer crepe with touches of gold at the neck and on the belt. Her flowers were a shoulder corsage of white and pink carnations. Mr. Culbertson, who has been in failing health for some time, greeted his friends from his easy chair. He was attired in a gray business suit with a white carnation boutonniere. Receiving with Mr. and Mrs. Culbertson were Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Culbertson, of Sterrett; Mrs. C. J. O'Conner, of Bridgeport; Paul Fraser, of San Benito; Mrs. Gus Rape of Vernon, and Mrs. W. K. Jennings of Abilene.

Mrs. F. P. Warren, of Wichita Falls, directed guests to the dining room where Mrs. T. J. O'Conner, of Dallas, and Mrs. R. M. Delk, of Waxahachie, sisters of Mr. Culbertson, presided at the silver tea service. Cakes and mints in the chosen colors of white and gold were served by Mrs. Paul Fraser, of San Benito; Mrs. Marvin Culbertson, of Vernon; Mrs. Joe Culbertson, and Mrs. Robert Strayhorn, of Rotan.

In the room where a lovely array of gifts were displayed, Mrs. J. D. Kirben and Mrs. J. D. Keys of Waxahachie, presided at the register to secure names of the more than two hundred guests who called.

Goodbys were said by Miss Vera Culbertson, of Wichita Falls, and Marvin Culbertson, of Vernon.

ABILENE WOMAN SPEAKER FOR MISSIONARY SOCIETY

Mrs. J. R. Fielder of Abilene was guest speaker at an all day meeting of the Baptist Woman's Missionary Society held at the First Baptist church when she talked on Personal Service. Her message was most interesting and inspirational.

Mrs. J. L. Keen gave the devotional at the morning session, using as her subject, "Making Use of the Talents We Have." A quartet composed of Mrs. Henry Albritton, Mrs. Hubert Morton, Misses Betty Merle Routh and Virginia Barnes sang "Bearing Hiss Cross for Me."

At the noon hour a covered dish luncheon was served in the church banquet room where autumn flowers in bright hues decorated the tables.

In the afternoon meeting, Mrs. Joe Simpson gave the devotional on "Local Missions," and Stanley Wilson sang "An Evening Prayer."

About forty women attended the meeting. Out of town guests were Mrs. Fielder, Mrs. O. H. Cooper, Mrs. George Paxton, Mrs. Beam and Mrs. Herring, all of Abilene.

MRS. L. H. MCBRIDE

Bronze and yellow chrysanthemums decorated rooms in the home of Mrs. L. H. McBride, Tuesday afternoon, when she was hostess to the Trece Senoras club entertaining with three tables of contract. A Halloween motif was featured in game appointments and also appeared in the refreshment plate which held salads, individual pumpkin pies and tea.

At the conclusion of the games high scores were held by Mrs. Clinton Barrow for the club and Mrs. R. B. Wiar for guests. Others playing were Mmes. Akers, Otis Hopper, Fred Carpenter, Bill Reuntee, Vera Nobles, Willard Maberry, Frank Lawlis, C. F. Butcher, Don Gould and R. Y. Barrow.

Hamlin Lions Club Observe 10th Anniversary

Tuesday evening the Hamlin Lions Club entertained club wives and friends with a banquet at the Model Hotel in observance of the club's tenth anniversary.

True to the Halloween spirit the spacious dining room was decked with witches, goblins, black cats and other symbols suggestive of the season. Tables were centered with large golden pumpkins filled with autumn fruits and encircled with autumn leaves.

Mayor Joe Culbertson, a past president of the club, was toastmaster for the occasion. Other past presidents who brought greetings and told of some special accomplishment of the club during their administrations were J. J. Waggoner, first club president, though now inactive; W. C. Russell, Arlie Cassle and Gordon Bennett.

Principal speaker for the evening was attorney James P. Stinson, of Abilene, whose talk was based on the thought of a Lions Club's Contribution Towards Civic Unity.

Mrs. Willard Maberry, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. W. C. Russell, sang two Irish songs, "A Hut On The Hillside," and "The Top O' The Morning to You."

Walter S. Pope Jr., of Anson, presented chevrons to Dr. J. W. McCrary, president and Joe Culbertson, as charter members and for continuous ten years of active club service. Ted Russell, who was not a charter member, but holds a record of ten years continuous service, was also given an award. Gordon Bennett, recently retired president, was given a past president's pin.

Forty-six Lions and Lionesses were present to enjoy this pleasant evening.

Guests assembled at the home of Miss Nadine Morgan for a brief meeting and from there went to the Harden Hotel for the banquet.

Yellow roses, the sorority flower, centered the table where place cards carried rhymes appropriate for each individual. Mrs. Austin Poe extended welcome to the new members.

Those present were Mrs. Gerald Morgan, Mrs. Perry Sparks, Mrs. Holly Toler, Mrs. Austin Poe; Misses Lucille Willis, Elsie Wienke, Hermona Shadle, Edwina Gilbert, Nadine Morgan and Pauline Harrell.

PIPERETTE CLUB

The Piperettes are very happy over their boots which arrived in time for the Stamford game.

Our charter has been read and discussed in our previous meetings and hope for it to be completed by next week. Our charter provides a law for us to meet every afternoon to practice formations and marching.

We participated in the Junior carnival, where we made some money for our club.

We have a new attraction to our club. Mac Harrel, who will do stunts for our formations.

Luxurious 'Chicken Coop'

The most luxurious "chicken coop" in the world is in Miami, Fla. It was originally planned as a sumptuous hotel, at a cost of more than a million dollars, and was just about completed when the 1929 stock-market crash occurred. Pretentious, even though its window frames lack glass, its only "guests" for many years have been thousands of scientifically-raised white leghorn chickens.

Oldest Textile Plant

Common flax (Linum usitatissimum L.), is first on the list of textile plants, as the one of which we have the oldest historic record. It formed both the garments and grave clothes of the inhabitants of ancient Egypt. The cere-cloth which envelops Egyptian mummies consists of fiber of flax.

"Build-Up": Way to Ease Women's Pain

Many weak, run-down women are in a vicious circle. Their undernourishment often leads to what is called functional dysmenorrhea and its symptoms—headaches, nervousness, irritability, intermittent cramp-like pains—from which many women suffer. Surest way to break the vicious circle is by building strength and energy, which so many find may be done with the help of CARDUI. It stimulates appetite, aids digestion, and thus helps in this "build-up" of physical resistance. Women also report that, if taken just before and during "the time," CARDUI helps to ease the pain and discomfort of the period.

Steak Name Debated

The origin of the porterhouse steak has been disputed, but some authorities claim that this particular cut of beef was made popular by the proprietor of a New York porter house. Another story is that it derived its name from a small hotel in Sandusky, Ohio, called the Porter house. Charles Dickens is said to have visited this hotel and to have been so pleased with the steak served there that he spread its fame throughout the United States. Afterward leading hotels and restaurants began to call their choice steaks porterhouse.

Rumania Rich In Resources

Fuel for Machines and Food For Humans Produced In Abundance.

WASHINGTON.—Rumania headlined again by the news of the assassination of her premier and the execution of hundreds of Nazi sympathizers that followed, holds a key position in the turbulent affairs of the Balkan peninsula with her rich resources of oil and grain and the polyglot mixture of her population.

"Fuel for machines and food for humans both spring in abundance from Rumania's soil, and access to them is of first importance to many nations," says the National Geographic society.

"Within the confines of the country, about the size of Arizona, live some 19,000,000 people, but nearly one-third of them are non-Rumanians. The 13,000,000 Rumanians trace their ancestry to Roman colonists who intermarried with the inhabitants of the region. The other 6,000,000 includes Germans, Jews, Hungarians, Bulgarians, Russians, Yugoslavs, Czechs, Slovaks, Poles, Armenians, Greeks, Turks, Tatars and gypsies.

Big Powers Interested.

"Germany, France and England all recently have been displaying interest in Rumania through trade agreements or political negotiations, and one of the chief reasons for this interest is oil. Rumania is second only to the U. S. S. R. as a European producer of oil and other petroleum products.

"During the World war, when German armies overwhelmed Rumanian defenses and took over a large part of the country, the Rumanian oil wells were wrecked and workmen capable of repairing them evacuated. The industry has been rebuilt, and Rumania now is sixth among the world's oil-producing nations.

"Grain comes next to oil on the list of raw materials that make Rumania important. Americans would feel at home in many parts of the country for they would see broad acres of Indian corn, introduced from the New World. Corn has become the staple food of the Rumanian peasant, eaten in a form of mush.

"Wheat, on the other hand, is an important crop in northwestern Rumania, in Transylvania, acquired from Hungary after the World war of 1914-18. Besides grain, Rumania supplies timber to the international trade. Salt is mined in the north near Bucovina, from deposits worked by the ancient Romans. Zinc, copper, iron and lead are other mineral resources. Sheep and cattle are exported.

Germany Best Customer.

"Germany took the largest proportion of Rumanian exports, about 26 per cent, in 1938, with Great Britain second, while Czechoslovakia, before its dismemberment, was third. A third of Rumania's 1938 imports were from Germany. In return for raw materials, Rumania's industrialized customers send her manufactured goods, machinery, steel, rubber and automobiles. American trade with Rumania is of minor importance.

"Rumania acquired about half of its heterogeneous population and nearly two-thirds of its present territory as a result of treaties after the World war of 1914-18. Many of the 'foreigners' have retained their national customs, resulting in numerous alien 'islands.'

"Trade, especially in northern Rumania, is chiefly in the hands of the nearly one million Jews. More than a million and a half Hungarians and nearly a million Germans live in western and central Rumania. In the northern and eastern sections are about half a million Ruthenians, 100,000 Russians, the same number of Turks and 200,000 Tatars.

"East meets west in Rumania. Mosques, minarets and fezies give the appearance of a Turkish town to Balic, a port on the Black sea. In regions of Rumania adjoining Bulgaria have settled about 300,000 Bulgarians, and the same number of gypsies form a colorful foreign element. Many of the gypsies are actors. Some sell flowers in the cities, while others roam the country as musicians, occasionally accompanied by trained bears. Braila, the home town of the writer of gypsy tales, Conrad Bercovici, is one of the oldest gypsy settlements."

Australian Wilds Getting Plane Grocery Delivery

CANBERRA.—Civilization has dropped from the sky upon one of the most isolated sections of Australia's northern territory. The "farthest outback" air service has been inaugurated between Alice Springs and Wyndham. Although the route covers 1,000 miles the region has fewer than 150 inhabitants, and they subsist almost entirely on canned foods. To the 14 stopping places along the route the air service will take fresh fruit and vegetables once every two weeks. The airplane will also operate a flying-doctor service. The region will be surveyed to see which parts can be developed for farms, cattle, and mines.

Cracked Ice Is Used In Place of Anesthetic

The use of ether, chloroform and other drugs as anesthetics preparatory to operating on lower animals is often objectionable because of the after effects of the drugs. This difficulty can be overcome by the use of low temperatures for stupefaction. Fishes, amphibians and reptiles may be conveniently and fully anesthetized by immersion in water and cracked ice or simply in cracked ice. After 10 or 15 minutes in the cooling mixture the animals are fully stupefied and, if they are laid out on cracked ice, they may be subjected to an extended and uninterrupted operation.

Recovery is quick and satisfactory at the ordinary temperature of the laboratory, and the animals so treated may be almost at once tested in a particular way without waiting for the gradual disappearance from their systems of an anesthetizing drug, writes G. H. Parker in "Science." This method has been applied with success in the Harvard laboratories to salt-water and fresh-water fishes, to amphibians and to reptiles. Whether it will have any operative significance for adult, warm-blooded vertebrates remains to be seen. Press reports of a kind of cold hibernation induced in human beings by a slight lowering of their bodily temperatures is suggestive of such a step.

Opaque Glass in Homes

An opaque structural glass paneling, long a favorite for modern store, theater, and building fronts, is making its entry into the home. This glass paneling is becoming increasingly popular for walls and wainscoting in kitchens and bathrooms. Besides being ultra-modern in appearance, the material is said to have unusual resistance to wear. Available in a rich variety of plain and agate colors, it has a high luster. Among the advantages this type of wall material claims are that it will not warp, swell, or craze. It is nonabsorbent and resistant to staining and to burns from cigarettes. Applications of soap and water are said to keep it clean.

Refuse Heaps Tell Story

Refuse heaps of yesterday are treasure troves of today in the eyes of archeologists. Crude objects of the Stone age, and weapons, utensils, ornaments, patiently wrought by hand, are means by which science interprets the story of the past. One of the most famous of such middens, or trash piles, is a prehistoric shell heap at Jones cove, a part of Frenchman bay, which washes the sheer granite cliffs of Acadia National park, Maine. Shore dinners over many decades went into the accumulation of this mammoth heap of clam shells. To any who possess the key, the shell heaps are veritable museums of ancient history.
